On Friday, December 16 the St. Chrysostom's Day School will have its Christmas Pageant. Classes will begin at the regularly scheduled time, 9am and 12:45pm, but parents are to remain after drop-off and proceed to the St. Chrysostom's Sanctuary where the pageant will be held shortly after.

The school will have a professional videographer to record the program so that we will able to provide DVDs to each family for your future viewing pleasure. Any additional photography or videotaping is prohibited as it will be disruptive to the children's performance; no exceptions will be made. We appreciate your full cooperation on this point.

Following the performance, parents should remain seated until the teachers have escorted their individual groups back to the classrooms. Parents are invited to join their children in class for a Christmas celebration complete with special treats supplied by the Day School and gifts the children have made for their parents. After the party the children are free to leave with their parents.

The children and staff at St. Chrys' are both very excited about this special day and hope that you are too. If you are unable to attend please notify your child's teacher.
